EMBASSY THEATRE SERIES: HEDDA GABLER

*at the Embassy of Hungary
(2950 Spring of Freedom St NW, Washington D.C. 20008)*

Hedda Gabler is the female Hamlet character in drama. Many have tried to translate the personality of this extraordinarily complex female figure created by Henrik Ibsen in 1890. The sharp-minded, exceptional woman who deliberately disregarded the Civil Code of Conduct had dreamed up a sparkling world, but she soon had to realize that being with the chosen man would not turn her hopes on. The consequences of this recognition not only affect the fate of Hedda, but also those around her.

KIDS EURO FESTIVAL 2019 FOLK TALES FROM HUNGARY

NOVEMBER 2, 2019 @11:00 a.m. at the Embassy of Hungary
(2950 Spring of Freedom St NW, Washington D.C. 20008)

Once upon a time, on the other side of the Beyond, in a place named Hungary, there lived a man who together with his friend traveled the far-away telling fairy tales and dancing for fun tunes. One time, they decided to cross the big blue ocean and come to America. You, the lucky ones, who are reading these lines, are welcome to come and listen to the Great Tale-Teller and then dance with his friend for Hungarian tunes. They won't come empty-handed, there will be some magic cocoa and golden bread to fill your tummies, too. All kids are welcome, but tales are best fitted to the age group of 6-12 years.

This event is part of the Kids Euro Festival, one of the largest performing arts festivals for children in America for 12 years.
